

Friday News - 12.06.2026

Antarctica, Africa and Oceania classes had a fantastic morning on Tuesday as they welcomed Doorstop Theatre Productions in to school who performed The Lighthouse Keeper to them. It was an amazing production with 2 very talented actors who really brought the story to life. The children loved seeing the live theatre with live music and singing as well. They were absolutely mesmerised by the performance. The props were a great hit and the children loved being able to touch some of them. Oceania class then had the privilege of a theatre workshop that afternoon. The children behaved really well and were a credit to the school. The actors commented on how engaged they were.

PSHE and RSE

Following new guidelines from the DFE, we have been busy updating our PSHE (Personal, Social, Health Education) curriculum including RSE (Relationships Sex Education). As part of the changes, we would like to collect parental views on PSHE and RSE. Miss Paddon has created a parental survey which we would very much appreciate you completing. It shouldn't take very long.

We have also updated the RSE policy which is attached. There is an opportunity to comment on the policy in the survey as well.

The survey can be completed here: PSHE Survey Questions – Fill in form
